Spot the Oops

One screen. One real problem. Three clicks.

A round in progress: one wrong guess marked and two tries left.

Spot the Oops is a free one-minute daily game from oops! web studio. It launches on Monday 23 November 2026.

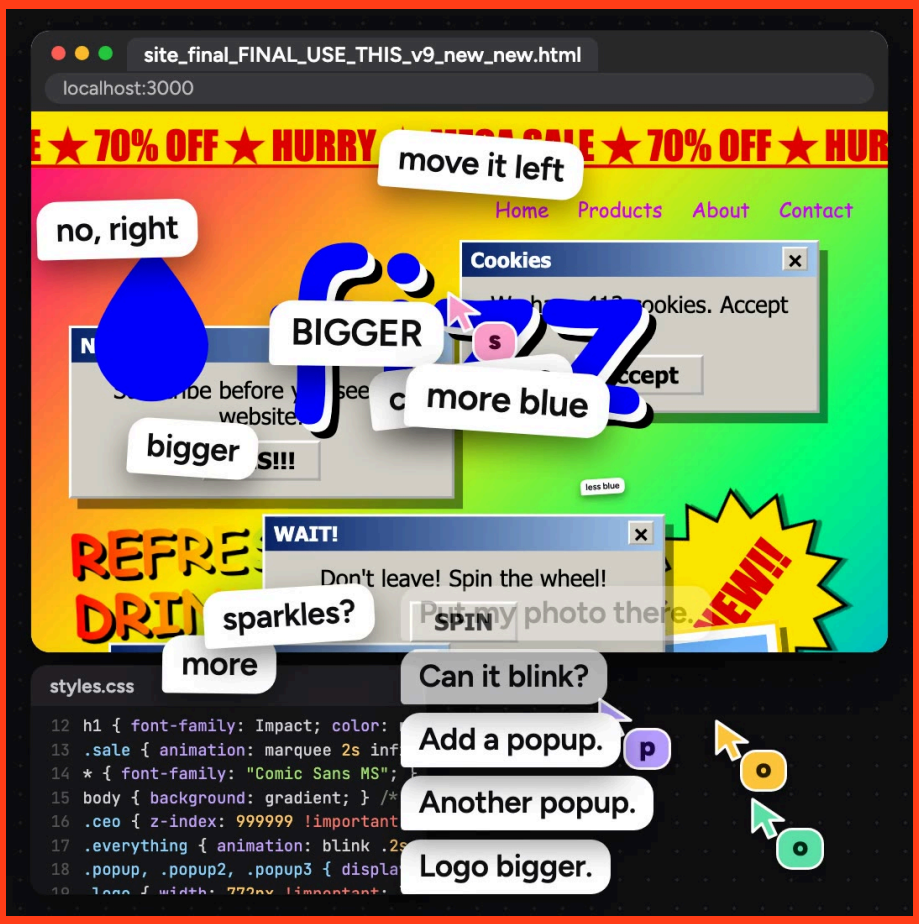

Each round is a working interface with one real design problem. You get three clicks to find it. Every round ends with the rule it breaks and the fix.

11 rounds exist so far. 4 are dark patterns from India's 2023 guidelines.
